

Biography of Steven A. Rosen

Steven A. Rosen, a Certified Business Intermediary, is President of Sunbelt of Pennsylvania covering SE Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware. Sunbelt, the corporate entity, is the largest business brokerage firm in the world and is engaged in the most transactions.

For more than 20 years Steven has worked with companies and individuals who are interested in selling or buying both Main Street and Middle Market businesses. His team of four business transaction specialists works with him in matching sellers with potential business owners. Steven is experienced in negotiating transactions and structuring the finalized deals. He works with accountants, other attorneys, financial planners and a variety of lenders.

Prior to becoming a business transaction specialist, Steven worked as general counsel for a New York Stock Exchange company doing mergers and acquisitions. He has written articles on selling and buying a business for several trade publications and is working with legislators to improve the climate of business in Pennsylvania.

As past President of the Pennsylvania Business Brokers Association, Steven has shown leadership in his field. Steven is a member of the following organizations: American Bar Association, Pennsylvania Bar Association, International Business Brokers Association, International Franchise Association, Pennsylvania Business Brokers Association and M&A Source.
